The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving (responsive)

The Lord be with you;

and also with you.

Lift up your hearts;

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God;

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God our creator... (minister continues prayer)... we lift our voices to echo the song of creation

(Sing the Sanctus: #829)

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might,

heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

God our companion... (minister continues prayer)... as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died;

Christ is risen;

Christ will come again.

God of communion and community... (minister continues prayer) ...we pray together the words Jesus taught us, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts,

as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Psalm 81:1-10

Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.

Raise a song, sound the tambourine,
the sweet lyre with the harp.

Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
at the full moon, on our festal day.

For it is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

God made it a decree in Joseph,
when he went out over the land of Egypt.

I hear a voice I had not known:

'I relieved your shoulder of the burden;
your hands were freed from the basket.

In distress you called, and I rescued you;

I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

Hear, O my people, while I admonish you;
O Israel, if you would but listen to me

There shall be no strange god among you;
you shall not bow down to a foreign god.

I am the Lord your God,
who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it

Deuteronomy 5:12-15

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

Response to readings

For the word of God in Scripture

For the word of God within us

For the word of God around us

Thanks be to God.

Introit – The first day of the week
(#337 – The Book of Praise 1972)

The first day of the week
His own, in sad despair,
Could not believe for very joy
The risen Lord was there.

And on the Lord's own day
From needless burdens freed,
They kept a sabbath made for man.
To fit man's inmost need.

This day his people meet,
This day his word is sown;
Lord Jesus, show us how to use
This day we call Your own.

words: Fred Pratt Green 1969
music: Williams' Psalmody 1770

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

I am sometimes asked “Who is your favourite composer?”. That is a question I cannot answer because I have enjoyed and been moved by the music of so many different composers. Another question that musicologists find difficult to answer is “Who was England’s best composer?” Some might say Henry Purcell and others would say Ralph Vaughan Williams but what about others like John Stanley or even Jeremiah Clarke?

Today we have a musical offering by all of the aforementioned. The first Prelude is by Henry Purcell (1658-1695) whose music certainly tops the list of great English composers. For many years it was thought that he composed today’s Postlude which was commonly referred to as “Purcell’s Trumpet Voluntary”. However, recent scholarship has revealed that it was in fact composed by the lesser known Jeremiah Clarke (1674-1707) who was organist at St. Paul’s Cathedral and the Chapel Royal.

The second Prelude was composed by the blind organist John Stanley (1713-1786) who was one of the most prominent composers in 18th century England and awarded the position of Master of the King’s Musick.

The Anthem is a short work by the beloved Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) who contributed so much to church music and the concert hall. I remember when I was young hearing Leonard Bernstein calling him the greatest composer living in the world today. So much of his music I simply have to describe as “comforting”.

Anthem – O Taste and See

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is:
blest is the man that trusteth in him.

words: Psalm 34:8

music: Ralph Vaughan Williams

Well, waddle you know...

our resident duck is sitting on a nest of 6 eggs!! The nest is hidden in the bushes right outside the Manse door, so maybe try to avoid disturbing it. Elliot from the Manse has been carefully tending to this mama duck – making sure there is always a bowl of clean water and duck feed available for her. We will continue to monitor the nest (from a distance) and update when the ducklings hatch, so you can watch out for them when you use the parking lot. And of course, we will try to surreptitiously and non-invasively take photos...
